

Energy Management Policy

Soltec Energías Renovables SLU, leader in Design, Manufacturing, Installation and maintenance of Photovoltaic Plants, is aware that compliance with its mission and goals, it implies that has to be further competitive in the markets in which it operates and be increasingly sustainable.

For Soltec Energías Renovables SLU, the efficient use of energy resources is a fundamental pillar to be competitive and environmentally sustainable.

To do this, it has energy objectives and goals that are the framework to achieve continuous improvement of energy performance and the Energy Management System (EnMS).

Soltec Energías Renovables, SLU is committed to achieving improved energy performance by acquiring the following commitments:

- Continuously improve energy performance.
- Promote the efficient use of energy and energy savings in its permanent and temporary facilities.
- Implement new technologies and improve the existing ones to consume energy in its facilities more efficiently.
- Improve energy consumption habits by workers and staff belonging to contractor and subcontractor companies.
- Promote the use, as far as possible, of renewable energy production technologies.
- Ensure the availability of information and resources to achieve energy objectives and goals.
- Support the purchase of energy efficient products in order to improve energy performance.
- Support the activities of design that consider the improvement of energy performance.
- Comply with the applicable requirements related to its energy uses and consumption.

This Policy is disseminated at all levels of the company and available to the public, as well as to all the Stakeholders who request it.